Good day to you,

My name is Johnson Williams, I am a financial consultant. I have previously sent you a message regarding a transaction worth Ninety Four Million US Dollars ($94,000,000.00) left by my late client before his tragic death.

I am contacting you once again because after going through your profile, I strongly believe that you will be in a better position to execute this business transaction with me. If you consent to this request, I propose the sharing of the proceeds as follows, 45% to each of us and 10% to charity Organizations.

Please rest assured that this transaction is 100% success guaranteed and risk-free and should be kept very confidential.

I am looking forward to your response

Kindest Regards
Johnson Williams
